

Homemade music shakers, by putting rocks or other small household items into used water bottles make shakers for music. Reusing old and household materials to make music!